Early Women of Architecture in Maryland

In celebration of Women History Month, the Women in Architecture Committee of AIA Baltimore invites you to a special presentation on early women of architecture in Maryland prior to 1970. Students will share their research on these pioneers in the profession and showcase materials for an exhibit that will travel throughout the State beginning in June 2015. This project was developed in association with the School of Architecture & Planning and the Morgan State University Honors Program.

Thursday March 19, 2015 @ 6:00-7:30pm
Reception and Special Presentation in the Atrium of the School of Architecture + Planning
